Major/Minor in LLAS

Major in Latino & Latin American Studies

The major in LLAS allows students to explore their interests as they pertain to Latin American, Caribbean and Latinx peoples. Students learn research methods, apply them to community settings, design original capstone projects, and can mix and match courses across disciplines. In this way students craft unique intellectual profiles and resumes.

Minor in Latino Studies

The interdisciplinary minor in Latino Studies advances a critical understanding of Latinos as an integral social and cultural component of the U.S. society and of the American hemisphere. Since it employs interdisciplinary research methods, this minor enhances a variety of majors and fields of study.

Minor in Latin American Studies

The interdisciplinary minor in Latin American Studies offers a basic understanding of the peoples and cultures of Latin America and the Caribbean, their histories and contemporary economic, social, and political problems, and their relations with the United States.
